PASTOR COBB'S CORNER:

The Festival of the Holy Trinity originates from the 10th century and celebrates “the richness of the being of God; a thankful review of the now completed mystery of salvation, which is the work of the Father through the Son in the Holy Spirit.” (Commentary from the Lutheran Book of Worship, p. 301). Today’s Bible readings bring this richness of the Name and the work of God to us.

40 Days for TRINITY’S SPECIAL NEEDS (see insert), please, as you come to communion, sign in on one of the calendar days to pray for the work of Trinity’s call committee.

Special gifts for a new social hall floor will be received in the pew envelopes with the “praying hands.” Thank you for your generous extra gifts.

Children/youth are invited to serve as ushers/lectors. Speak to me or sign up with the persons who coordinate these ministries: Ushers: Dick Davis, 595-7474; Lectors: Mary Dell, 753-4861.

Bible Study: every Tuesday, 10:30 a.m., church parlor. Next Sunday’s Gospel text: Luke 7:1-10.

SACRAMENT OF HOLY BAPTISM:

The Sacrament of Holy Baptism will be celebrated this morning at the 11:00 a.m. worship service for Reagan Loremae Anderson, daughter of Alan and Anneliese Anderson. The four grandparents are serving as Godparents. They are: Sandra and Richard Anderson and Karoline and Fred Ardis. Let us rejoice in the promise of salvation which becomes hers.
