WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP

In the fullness of time, your Word became flesh to shine through our world's darkness, to speak peace to all peoples, and to reveal your love throughout the world. For your incarnate Word,

We adore you, O God.

LIGHTING OF THE CANDLES

Hope is a candle that flickers and waves yet offers warmth and life.

The darkness shall turn into light, the moon will shine as bright as the sun.

Hope is a hand that reaches out in peace.

The wolf shall live with the lamb; the leopard shall lie down with the kid.

Hope is a song that grows and fills the world with joy.

The wilderness and dry land will be glad; the desert rejoices and bloom.

Hope is a promise of a baby to be born in a manger stall.

A woman shall bear a son and his name shall be Immanuel.

PROCLAMATION

Jesus Christ, our savior and shepherd is coming; the One who is Love, overflows and fills us with love; the One who brings healing mends our hearts with mercy and compassion; the Prince of Peace comes to bring light and life for all Creation. The one who will be born in the humble manger as a vulnerable baby is the one who will and the one who has defeated death and the powers of evil, offering to us life and salvation through a gift of abundant grace. These are the gifts of Christmas, the gifts of Easters, the gifts for all time.

For all this, we give thanks!

GATHERING HYMN

Of the Father's Love Begotten

ELW 295

GREETING

The Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

O God, it is your will to hold both heaven and earth in a single peace. Let the design of your great love shine on the troubles and sorrows of this world, and give peace to your church, peace among nations, peace in our homes, and peace in our hearts, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The assembly is seated.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 9:2-7

The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness —
on them light has shined.
You have multiplied exultation;
you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you
as with joy at the harvest,
as people exult when dividing plunder.
For the yoke of their burden
and the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor,
you have broken as on the day of Midian.
For all the boots of the tramping warriors
and all the garments rolled in blood
shall be burned as fuel for the fire.
For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders,
and he is named
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
Great will be his authority,

and there shall be endless peace
for the throne of David and his kingdom.
He will establish and uphold it
with justice and with righteousness
from this time onward and forevermore.
The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Word of God, Word of Life

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL

The holy gospel according to St. Luke, the 1st chapter

Glory to you, O Lord

Luke 1:5-19

In the days of King Herod of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, who belonged to the priestly order of Abijah. His wife was descended from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. Both of them were righteous before God, living blamelessly according to all the commandments and regulations of the Lord. But they had no children because Elizabeth was barren, and both were getting on in years.

Once when he was serving as priest before God during his section's turn of duty, he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to enter the sanctuary of the Lord to offer incense. Now at the time of the incense offering, the whole assembly of the people was praying outside. Then there appeared to him an angel of the Lord, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. When Zechariah saw the angel, he was terrified, and fear overwhelmed him. But the angel said to him,

“Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you will name him John. You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, for he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He must never drink wine or strong drink; even before his birth he will be filled with the Holy Spirit. He will turn many of the people of Israel to the Lord their God. With the spirit and power of Elijah he will go before him, to turn the hearts of parents to their children and the disobedient to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.” Zechariah said to the angel, “How can I know that this will happen? For I am an old man, and my wife is getting on in years.” The angel replied, “I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news.”

THE GOSPEL CONTINUES WITH Luke 1:26-38

In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary. And Gabriel came to her and said, “Greetings, favored one! The Lord is with you.” But she was much perplexed by these words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be. The angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.” Mary said to the angel, “How can this be, since I am a virgin?” The angel said to her, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called Son of God. And now, your relative Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son, and this is the sixth month for her who was said to be barren. For nothing will be impossible with God.” Then Mary said, “Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word.” Then the angel departed from her.

In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no place in the guest room.

Now in that same region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for see, I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

"Glory to God in the highest heaven,
and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them, and Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as it had been told them.

This is the Gospel of our Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

REFLECTION HYMN

Love Has Come

ELW 292

PRAYER OF THE PEOPLE

Prayers can be like gifts, the gift of unburdening our hearts to God, the gift of knowing another person is praying for us and carrying the weight alongside, the gift of praying for another person. Tonight we will write the prayers of our hearts and place them in the gift box. We will place this at the altar, leaving our gifts for others, the gifts we need for ourselves.

OFFERING

We are beginning a toy drive this evening which will carry on through the fall.

OFFERTORY PRAYER

O God, you are the source of every blessing. From your hand we receive with joy the abundance of your good gifts of grace, life, and salvation. We give thanks for the promise of the coming Son, the Savior of the World. With thanksgiving, we gather these gifts with the joy that comes in giving to others. We rejoice as we share these gifts in the name of Christ our Savior. Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

BLESSING

May the light of Christ illumine the darkness of this world, binding up that which is broken, and returning our hearts to wholeness. May Christ bring light, comfort, peace, to this yearning world.

Amen.
